COGS Full Council Meeting

The Council Of Graduate Students (COGS) at Michigan State University are proud to announce its Sixth Annual Graduate Academic Conference (GAC), taking place on March 27, 2014. The GAC is open to Graduate and Professional Development Grants of ALL Academic fields with the purpose of cultivating connections within and across disciplines.

We are also excited to announce that Jorge Cham, renowned lecturer and the creator of PhD Comics will be our keynote speaker. In his talk, Cham talks about his own experience as a graduate student, and discusses stress, guilt, and humor of this chosen academic path. All participants in the conference are invited to come to this keynote lunch.

Abstracts must be no more than 300 words and should be submitted by Friday, December 20, 2013.

For more information on the presentation types and registration, please visit www.msugac.com.
