

COGS 2025 GAC Presentation Information

Poster Presentations

Format: Physical poster on the medium of your choice. Please bring your poster with you on the day of the event.

Timeline: Your presentation will include a 3-5 minute summary, followed by 3-minute Q/A session.

Sizing: There is no required size or orientation of the posters. Easels include a 4'x4' corrugated board to secure your poster. Large clips, tapes, etc. will be available to secure your poster.

What to Expect on Presentation Day:

This poster adjudication is SCHEDULED. Judges will expect to find presenters available to talk about their poster during the scheduled time. Presenters are strongly encouraged by their station at least 15 minutes before their scheduled time.

The complete room schedule for adjudication will be posted and provided to participants before the event and provided to the judges during judge orientation.

In addition to the scheduled adjudication sessions, ALL poster presenters should be available to the conference attendees at large during the open session from 2:30-3:30 PM.

During the adjudication sessions:

For presenter's evaluated presentation, presenters will give a 3-5-minute summary presentation of their poster followed by a 3-minute Q/A with judges.

During the open session:

Presenters are encouraged to be near their posters, share their work with all attendees and interact with other presentations. No judging will take place during this session, but participants ARE encouraged to exchange feedback.

Oral Presentations

Format: PowerPoint type presentation - digital

Timeline: Presenters will have 10 minutes to present their work followed by 3 minutes Q/A with audience members and judges. A schedule of individual presentation times will be shared with presenters and posted in each room and online. It is encouraged that presenters be present in assigned rooms 20 minutes prior to scheduled time.
